In its proposal, the Nomination Committee has determined the degree to which the Board of Directors meets the demands that may result from the challenges the Company faces over the next few years as a result of Genovis' continued growth and development. The Committee has considered the size and composition of the Board with respect to factors such as industry experience and expertise. Should a shareholder decline to participate on the Nomination Committee, the right to appoint a representative shall be transferred to the next largest shareholder not represented in the committee. If deemed appropriate as a result of ownership changes, the Nomination Committee shall invite additional shareholders to join the Nomination Committee, though the total number of members may not exceed five. In the event a member of the Nomination Committee leaves the Committee before its work is completed, the Chairman of the Board, if the Nomination Committee deems necessary, shall invite the same shareholder or, if the latter is no longer one of the major shareholders, the shareholder next entitled, in terms of size of shareholding, to appoint a replacement. Such a change shall be announced on the company's website. The Nomination Committee will prepare proposals for the 2025 Annual General Meeting for resolution as regards chairman at the meeting, Chairman of the Board and other directors, remuneration of directors and auditors, and principles for appointing the Nomination Committee. The Nomination Committee mandate runs until a new committee is appointed.

The Nomination Committee proposes that remuneration will only be paid for direct costs associated with the assignment.
